Verse 1 - all voices sing melody

Now that the light is fading
 Silver and purple at twilight
 Scenes of the day remain with us
 Bright as the fire is burning bright

Verse 2 - parts

Blue is the sky above the lake
 And blue the water flowing
 White birch drooping on the shore
 Her leaves of emerald glowing

Refrain

*The night is robed in spangled black
 And soon we shall be sleeping
 Beyond the moon that rides on high
 The radiant dawn is creeping, creeping*

Verse 3 - parts

Down through the leaves the sunlight
 Came in shafts of gold
 Now by the dying embers
 We watched the day grow old
